In the Edo period (1603-1868), Nagasaki was a popular destination for students and travellers for the unique opportunity it offered to come into direct contact with foreign culture and knowledge. Let's learn what made Nagasaki so special!

Temporary Exhibition NAGASAKI YUGAKU - Dreaming of Nagasaki

1/17 (Sat) - 3/4 (Wed)

📍 3F Exhibition Room

💰 Adults ¥1000 High school students and younger free

🕒 9:00-18:00 (last entry 17:30)

(Free for Campus Members students)

During the Edo period, people from all around Japan came to Nagasaki to study new disciplines, train in new artistic styles, and meet with the Chinese and Dutch residents of the city. This exhibition explores the exotic sights they encountered here, the extraordinary days they spent, the people they met and the subjects they studied.

Decorative Nagasaki Kite

3/14 (Sat)

📍 1F Entrance 🕒 13:30-15:30

💰 ¥200 to make one kite

Event open to everyone

In Nagasaki, kites are called “hata”, and are traditionally fighter kites, used to compete against each other. The kite flying tournament, held every year in spring, is one of Nagasaki’s main annual events. Join this workshop and make a small “hata” to decorate your room.
